7. Controls over Trade
with Communist China
(NIE 100-55)

a. The conclusions were approved as amended, subject to specific footnotes by members, and agreement was reached on the manner in which certain controversial paragraphs should be treated. The paper was then referred to the representatives with instructions to make the text conform to the conclusions and agreements reached, final concurrence being subject to the circulation of an acceptable text before publication.

b. Reservations to certain sections were noted by footnotes. However, it was agreed that the divergence of views on the matter of Bloc shipping and overland transportation would be reflected in the text proper.
